JOSEPH M. FREEDMAN
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
LYCEUM THEATRE BUILDING
MEMPHIS, TENN.

MEMPHIS, TENN.
MAR 11
1-PM
1917

DESOTO STA
D

Miss Frances Levine,
70 Somers St.,
Brooklyn,
N. Y.

JOSEPH M. FREEDMAN
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
LYCEUM THEATRE BUILDING
MEMPHIS, TENN.

March 11th, 1917.

My sweetheart Frances;-

To-day is Sunday, and as per my promise, I'm writing for you to receive a letter on Tuesday. Let me know if you did receive this on that day.

Honey, I wish you were here to enjoy the weather to-day. It's just wonderful out to-day and you can take it from me, people are enjoying themselves.

You never did tell me if you spoke to Ed about coming here. I've spoken to quite a few people about him, casually, & some have given me assurance of his success here while others have not. I suppose it will take some time before I will be certain that if he comes here, he can make a living.

I believe I'll have a little trouble with that fellow Goldberger. He was supposed to send me $15 (I spoke to you about it) & he said he did send it. Mamma dear hasn't received it yet, & I heard from reliable sources, that on one occasion he provided a man, an intimate friend of his, out of $20, just the say way, so I

JOSEPH M. FREEDMAN
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
LYCEUM THEATRE BUILDING
MEMPHIS, TENN.

have to wait for developements:

Well, let me know how you'r getting on, & don't forget to keep writing every day, & I'll do the same, so now I'll close with all my love to my sweetheart Frances,

Lovingly

Joe.

Regards to your folks. Sorry hell was unable to ~~go~~ go out to the house. How did you enjoy yourself? Let me know how my dad is getting on. How does he look!